Mrs. Libby Rankin

In Acknowledgement Miss E. Frances Massey

"Several descriptive phrases come into mind when one discusses the office as Massey has developed it. The first is openmindedness. Massey's system was one of experimentation; if a request or problem occurred, it was considered and tried, rather than discarded due to lack of precedence. This willingness to employ new approaches to situations has been remembered by many. Dean Massey is often the first person alumnae wish to see when they visit the campus.

Perhaps the key word in considering the atmosphere created by the woman is graciousness. Massey's personality has shown through during her years at Maryville. She has handled the duties of her office with a poise and confidence which one rarely finds in an administrative position so susceptible to stagnation or antipathy. The interest exhibited by this woman has kept the door open to change.

It is this graciousness and openmindedness which must be remembered. Hopefully, enough of Dean Massey's personality will be left behind in order to keep the office continually open to innovation."

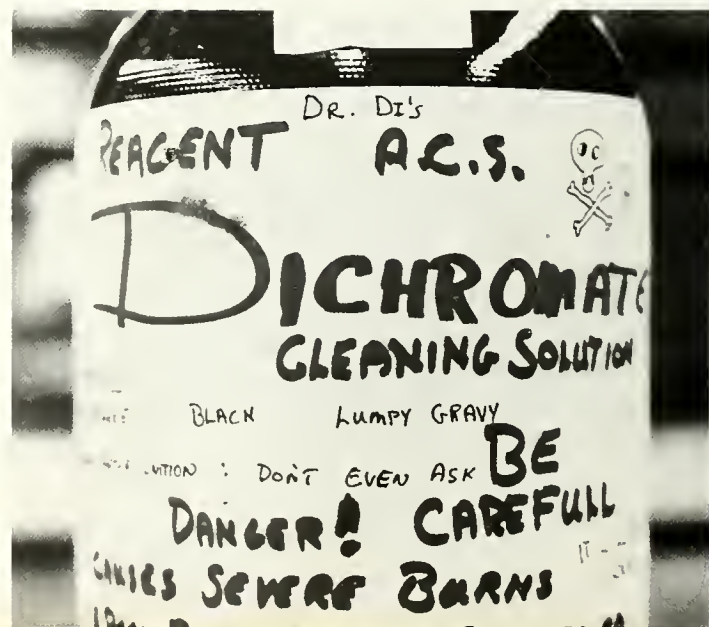

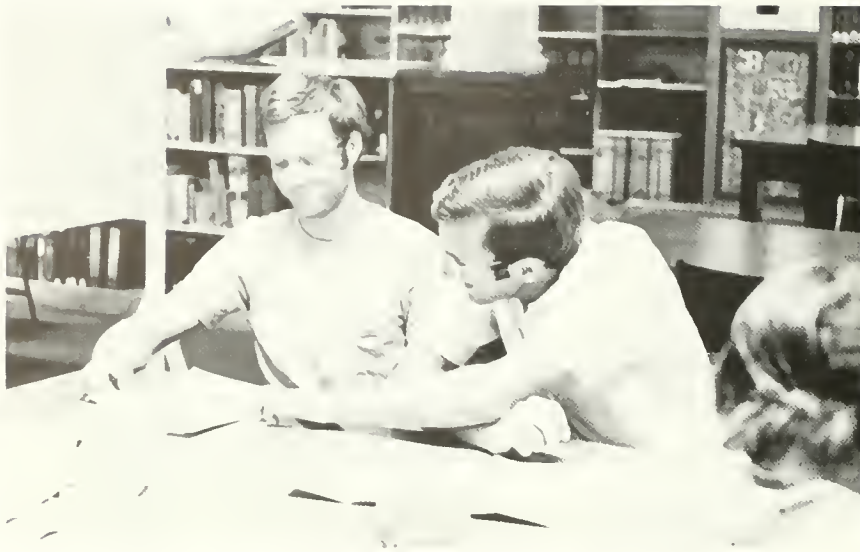

February, 1977, THE HIGHLAND ECHO

Dean Massey and officers of Alpha Lambda Delta

Dean Massey - Associate Dean of Student relations

CLASSES

*If I lift up my eyes to the hills,
Where shall I find help?
Help comes only from the Lord,
Maker of heaven and earth,
How could he let your foot stumble?
How could he, your guardian, sleep?*

*The guardian of Israel never slumbers, never sleeps.
The lord is your guardian,
your defense at your right hand;
the sun will not strike you by day nor the moon by night.
The Lord will guard you against all evil;
he will guard you, body and soul.
The Lord will guard your going and your coming,
now and forevermore.*

To Dan with Pun-ctuality

Crown Prince of Punsters, you've cheated each and all
Of the sweet pain of groaning at your bargain basement humor;
Never again will you tell me, like a panting muse,
To "put a little English in my singing,"
Or say to a classical scholar, "I've et THREE, Brute."
As you pile up your plate at a banquet.

Sinecure of high C's, the MESSIAH will never soar so high,
Or Kasper make so giddy with his magic box
As Amahl looks on in bright eyed wonder.
You entered the nine-years wreck that was once my voice
And, gently sweeping, sanding, and polishing,
Coaxed its roof and arches to a higher gloss,
Never counting the waves in my vibrato,
Or measuring the cavernous hole
That yawned in the middle of my tessitura.

I like to think you drouzed away from life,
A dull recital of toil and pain,
And even now are being measured
For a size forty-six celestial robe,
Ready to take your place as first of tenors
in the Newer Providence Sunday Choir,
That God merely wanted the high notes higher,
Needed a "solo pimp" more than we do here,
That one Sunday morning you'll be asking me
If I've anything ready for ten-forty-five.

I know that a certain Gabriel Faure
Has long impatiently waited
For someone whose French is pure,
Who bends the line of his treacherous phrases
With just the amalgam of sweet and somber strain.

I think that there are some unfinished things
That ought to be left stacked in your studio -
Let nobody dare, for example,
To take your place at Faculty Club dinners,
Writing receipts and parleying puns,
Belching quietly before your solo,
And softly nodding when the first slide comes into view.
